

Update Summer 2017

The building of the new home is almost finished. Together with another (local) foundation we are very proud of being able to give the orphan girls an better place to grow up. A big thank to everyone who has contributed to this nice project. The coming years, we'll keep involved and will sponsor small local initiatives.

Update Summer 2016

Last months the construction of a new building has started and below you can find some pics on how it's progressing. This is possible thanks to the donations received and local donations from another foundation in Colombia.
